

Casa Rural LUCIANITA

Datos Generales

description: House of the beginning of the XX century. Restored in 1990, keeping all the style of its old construction. First prize of tourist beauty in 1991, as well as in 1995. It has two facades, one with a canary porch, adorned with flowers, seats, a firewood oven and a cave. The other one has a big solarium (with mobile marquee) with barbecue, terrace furniture, where you can take sun the whole day in the absolute tranquillity. The house is surrounded of flowers and fruit-bearing trees as medlars, apples, avocados, vines, plums, etc..., everything inside a farm of 2500 square meters, isolated and placed only about 900 meters from "Montaña Alta" (Guía), and 400 meters from the future "House of the Cheese".

Situation

It is located in the high of a hill, beside a "pathway" (an old blidle path which was been restored in order to be used for trekking), where a wonderful panoramic of the whole northwest of the island, as well as of the city of Las Palmas can be sighted.

You can get there through a highway that enters from behind of Montaña Alta Church (a neighborhood of Guía). The car can be stayed in front of the house or parked in a garage for two cars located about 30 meters from the house.

At this eminently agricultural area with a huge number of potatoes and vegetables plantations, you can choose among one of the several possibilities to do during your holidays stay: going for a walk, just enjoying a rest in the most absolute silence or going into the culture of the area.
