Casa Rural SALAZAR

Datos Generales

description: This is one of the country houses of the bourgeoisie from one of the middle-class families who were living in the city and only sometimes in this house. The house shows a very important economic power and you can see it in his two floor, the balcony and the cornice. The house has a workshop of pottery where it is possible to look the work with the mod. This building is almost 300 years old. 8 persons are able to live in four rooms all with bathroom. The most comfortable and wide rooms are the sitting room and kitchen-eating room. They give to the house the classic style. The different rooms are authentic places full of charm. In the outside the cultivation of wine forms a beautiful landscape.
