Casa Rural JUANA QUINTA

Datos Generales

description: Casa Juana Quinta is part of an ecological farm. The main elements of its decoration are flowers and canarian items. This gives the houses a warm and quiet atmosphere breathable through the house. The simple but functional furniture revives the rural canarian atmosphere, offering as well plenty of comfort to the visitor.

The sitting-room keeps its original wooden ceiling of "tea" (pine core wood) showing the craftsmanship and simple techniques of hand cutting. All this is scarcely found so well conserved today because that belongs to the old days and most of it deteriorates everywhere.

The stoned patio and terraces with flowers are the right spots from which to admire the exceptional views from the sea right up to the top of the island. Nobody ever will forget the genuine picture -real, without paints- of the sunrise behind the silhouette of the impressive mountain of El Teide, in Tenerife, to the East of La Palma.

Situation

Casa Juana Quinta is surrounded by a very quiet and suggestive environment, inviting to rest and relax. It is very close to the Royal Walk of the Coast (GR 130) that follows all the island round, and also close to the shorter walk PR LP 17, better known as "Camino de La Faya".
