Casa Rural EL TENDAL

Datos Generales

description: This rural house is of a typical canarian style in perfect harmony with its natural surroundings. The owner has cleverly converted the available space, originally a place to store farm equipment, grains and animals, into a comfortable and magical building.

The house consists of a double room with twin beds, sitting/dining room and bathroom. A relaxing atmosphere permeates through each room. The main attraction of this house, however, is the garden. The layout has a deceptively natural appearance that has in fact been very well thought out. A number of different bushes and endemic plants and flowers have been chosen to provide a wide variety of colour. A flagstone path leads around the outside of the house to end at a little porch, home to a mud oven and barbecue area. An outside shower and variety of garden furniture make outside living easy here.
