Datos Generales

description: Cottage house web site

This 18th century house on two floors is a surprising example of both conservation and transformation from one era to another. Its impressive exterior together with the numerous plants around the house are beautiful. Its spacious and comfortable interior is reached via the old door leading into a pretty hallway and is full of pleasant details and good taste. The kitchen retains the flavour of the many comings and goings in the past and upstairs there is a large glazed and tiled gallery leading to the bedrooms, all with wooden ceilings and floors. The patio, surrounded by bananas and gardens full of plants is the ideal place to enjoy splendid views.
